July 2009

July 4th on the 3rd!

Join us on the Square for July's First Friday on July 3rd from 5-8 PM. Activities will include a chalk art contest, children's games and prizes, Uncle Sam Photo Shoot, music with patriotic songs, and a balloon man. Grillzilla will be set up and grilling holiday fare which will be served during the evening. Come to the Square on Friday to enjoy the activities and have dinner. Hot dog, chips, and a drink are $3, and a brat, chips, and a drink are $4. Look in this newsletter for a coupon for a free holiday fare dinner just for being a member of Noblesville Main Street!

July 25th From 5-11 PM—The Big Dance!

We are ready for the biggest event of the year—the 18th Annual Noblesville Street Dance. We are going to have an evening for you that will be filled with music, food vendors, and free games and prizes for the children.

This great event takes many hours of planning and many individuals who donate their time and talents in making sure each year's event is a success. This year's committee includes:

Cara Culp, City of Noblesville
Brandon Bennett, Noblesville Parks Department
Captain Brad Arnold, Noblesville Police Department
Chief Dick Russell, Noblesville Fire Department
Jason Williams, Noblesville Street Department
Karey Bredemeyer, Noblesville F. C. Tucker
Derek Lynas, White River Christian Church
Gail Nowicki & Joe Arrowood, Noblesville Main Street

Volunteers for the event include Rollin Cutter and Gary Hipes who coordinate the members of the Noblesville Lions Club in keeping the trash containers empty; Steve Goss of Aardvarks who sets up all the tents, tables and chairs; Roy Johnson of Hometown TV who films the entire event; Jim Wafford who makes sure all the banners and signs are made; Dave Burtner of Burtner Electric who provides all the electricity; and all the Main Street Members who are behind the scenes assisting in all the areas.

This grand event wouldn't be possible without our outstanding financial sponsors who include (cont.)

What are other downtowns doing?

From the Downtown Promotion Reporter, June Edition

Delray Beach, Florida holds an annual bed race in their Pineapple Grove Arts District downtown which is sponsored by the local newspaper, radio and individual businesses. The event kicks off at 5:30 p.m. with a bed parade followed at 6:30 p.m. by the hotly contested race. Cash prizes and trophies are awarded to the winners of both the race and the decorated beds.

Racing teams are made up of four runners, one “queen” riding in the bed and one substitute. The teams decorate their beds in honor of the annual theme. They pair this race with additional live entertainment, shopping and dining.

And The Winner Is...

The Membership Raffle Winner of the Month is Steve Renner of Renner’s Body Works! Congratulations, Steve! Stop by the Main Street office and pick up your choice of the buildings in the Town Series.
